10 inspirations for our city center

Friedrich-Ebert-Platz

This is the lively heart of downtown Hagen. Here the remains of the original town hall from 1904 can be found with the characteristic glass tower that was rebuilt in the 50's. In addition to the two malls, you can find various restaurants.

Kunstquartier Hagen

Not one, but two museums present their exhibitions in the „Kunstquartier Hagen“. The journey through these two museums with their contrasting programmes makes a visit an experience that is quite unique in Germany.

Volkspark

In winter, the Volkspark forms the center of the traditional Christmas market - in summer the park offers relaxation in the middle of the city center with sunbathing areas, a playground and an ice cream parlour.

Planetenmodell Hagen

In the 1960s and 1970s, the world's first walk-in model of our planetary system was created here in Hagen. It is supposed to illustrate the real proportions of the solar system.

Theater Hagen

is one of the most remarkable architectural landmarks in the city. Its offerings can be divided into five categories: musical theatre, ballet, drama, children's and youth theater and concerts by Hagen's Philharmonic Orchestra.

Buschey Friedhof

This cemetery in Wehringhausen was inaugurated in 1810 and is about 24,738 square meters in size. It is one of the most important cemeteries in the Ruhr area in terms of art as well as culture and therefore worth a visit.

Kulturzentrum Pelmke

In addition to its own pub, the "Kulturzentrum Pelmke" offers a wide range of events - from game nights to cinema screenings, concerts and parties.

Springeplatz

The „Spingeplatz“ is used for a wide variety of events in the summer. In addition to the "Cinestar" cinema and the city library, you can also find some popular restaurants close by.

Elbershallen Hagen

Industrial architecture meets entertainment: In recent years the former industrial district has developed into an attractive leisure and cultural location with high-quality restaurants and a wide range of activities.

Theater an der Volme

The Theatre in the old brick chapel on the "Elbersgelände", has been welcoming its theatre-loving guests since 2011. The theater offers a wide range of entertainment attracting audiences of all ages.
